

Title

Organization of the III World Cadet Games given the experience in organizing sports events in the context of pandemic

Abstract

Introduction

The III World Cadet Games (supposed to be held in St. Petersburg in 2020), were postponed due to the pandemic. Despite the negative impact of the pandemic on international sports, the organizers of major sporting events gained positive experience in managing competitions in in such conditions.

Practical Implications

The Military Institute of Physical Training created all the necessary conditions that will allow holding the III World Cadet Games under the auspices of CISM. All competitions will be held taking into account the world experience of organizing competitions in the conditions of a pandemic
