Overview

- International Military Sports Council (CISM) has empowered People's Liberation Army of China (PLA) to hold the 7th CISM Military World Games. With the game hosting pattern of “national support, military-civilian combination, military dominance, local undertaking and social participation”, we will strive to make the 7th CISM Military World Games a military sport and culture meeting featured with international standards, Chinese characteristics and modern connotations by adhering to the international military sports spirit of “Friendship through Sport”.

Emblem & Mascot

The emblem of the 7th CISM Military World Games is named as “Bond of Peace & Friendship”, it is composed of “pentagram”, “peaceful dove”, “colored ribbon” and “7” which implies that China, by virtue of the 7th CISM Military World Games, will spread the concept of peaceful development around the world.

The mascot is called “Bing Bing”. It is inspired by Chinese sturgeon, one of the national-level protected animals in China. “Bing Bing” symbolizes that Chinese government of the new era, with greater openness and hospitality, is willing to work with foreign friends around the world to enjoy the pleasure of friendship and create a peaceful world.
