International Military Sports Council
Colonel ABDULHAKEEM ALSHANO

International Military Sports Council
CISM Club Rio 2016- 4th to 21th August, 2016, Rio de Janeiro.

Dear Chiefs of Delegations,

We are very proud to host the CISM Club (International Military Sports Council) in Brazil. We will strive to provide the best to welcome you with all cordiality and friendship so that you enjoy your stay in our country.

The CISM Club shall operate throughout the period of the Olympic Games (4th to 21th August), at Brazilian Air Force University (UNIFA). The Club will host leaders of military delegations from more than 100 countries participating in the competition and have military athletes in their delegations.

The space will feature a hotel, an auditorium, a media center in which will be held press conferences, meetings and interviews with Brazilian and foreign military athletes. The media center, in charge of CISM will also disclose the results of the participation of military athletes in Olympic events.

The CISM Club is an opportunity to promote military sports and coexistence among countries that are Olympic powers and have athletes within the framework of its armed forces.

Welcome to Brazil,

ANNEX 2b

FINAL ENTRY - COMMITMENT BY THE CHIEF OF MISSION

COUNTRY :

The undersigned, Chief of Mission declare that he has read the CISM Regulations and moreover understood the following prescriptions:

PARTICIPATION - MILITARY STATUS

- A. Only military personnel on active duty in Armed Forces may take part in events organized by CISM.
- B. No one may be recalled to active duty in the Armed Forces for the purpose of participating in a CISM event. In the case of an intermittent military service, the athletes regularly recalled may not take part in CISM events, under any circumstances, if more than 18 months have elapsed between this recall and the end of their last call to arms.
- C. Exceptions to the above may be authorized by the General Assembly, upon recommendation of the Board of Directors.
- D. All military participants in a CISM event shall be in possession of proper documentation which signifies active military service of the member nation he represents. The documentation can be:
 - 1. A valid military identity card for those athletes who are authorized to present their military identity cards abroad,
 - 2. A form of verification (in English and/or French) of military status accompanied by a passport.
- E. By signing the final entry, the Chief of Delegation confirms the military status of the participating athletes. If there are last minute changes in the participation of the athletes, the verification file may be signed by the Participant, but shall be confirmed by the Chief of Delegation by official letter.
- F. If one of these documents is not available, participation is refused.

PARTICIPANTS

A. Participants

1. Participants shall be familiar with CISM regulations.
2. Participants must not only participate or be present at sports events, they are also required to participate in commemorative and cultural events and ceremonies organized by the host nation.

B. Conduct of the participant

1. The Participant is responsible for his behavior and general discipline. He shall respect the rules and directives prescribed by CISM and organizers of the event. The respect of schedules is particularly important as they form the basis for the effective conduct of events and ceremonies. Instances of indiscipline or poor sportsmanship will be handled by organizers officials and may result in the disqualification of individual athletes or teams.
2. The Participant shall also enforce the rules concerning behavior and dress during the ceremonies. He plays an important role in promoting the CISM spirit among his mission, a spirit represented by friendly attitude towards other missions and courtesy towards organizers. The Participant, who does not wear military uniforms during the opening ceremony of an event, will not be authorised to take part in the rest of event. The organizers officials will communicate this decision.

ABSENCE OF A PARTICIPANT WITHOUT NOTIFICATION

If a participant which submits a preliminary agreement and/or final entry is absent without notifying the host nation in time, a sanction will be imposed (Regulations Art. 1.12).

RULES OF STAY

A. General

The Participants are responsible for their discipline. The participants fall under the jurisdiction of the organizing nation. No one may use his rank to impose his views on sports matters.

B. Military uniforms

Unless otherwise approved by the organizers, all participants shall wear military uniform during official ceremonies such as the opening and closing ceremonies. Individuals without proper uniform will not be allowed to participate in the event.

C. Forbidden actions

1. In conformity with the statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or religious propaganda during a CISM event, in particular the dissemination of documents, pictures, brochures, reviews, etc. is strictly forbidden.

2. Any contravention shall result in the exclusion of the participant from further events and may result in additional sanctions (Regulations Art. 1.12).

International Military Sports Council
CISM Club Rio 2016- 4th to 21th August, 2016, Rio de Janeiro.

ACCOMODATIONS

A. All participants, including those of the host nation, shall be accommodated under the same conditions. If the conditions are in accordance with the CISM norms and standards, including which was established in the Cooperation Agreement, the participant are expected to accept the accommodation provided by the organizing nation.

Any participant that does not accept the accommodations provided by the organizing nation and judged as adequate by the organizer officials will not be allowed to participate in the event.
